"GOO-BI."
When I wrote this I thought I'd bust;
I laughed until I cried;
A girl is not untidy just Because her shoe's untied.

CURED HER.

used to make you go shopping with her. How did you manage to get out of it?

AMUSEMENTS

PASTIME THEATER

Two screaming comedies will be shown in the Keystone service at the Pastime theater this evening when patrons will have the pleasure of again witnessing that acrobatic cotterle made famous by the Keystone management. Those who were at the opening of the Pastime will recall "The Riot" of that evening in which the performers kept the house convulsed and will not fail to see the same team in "The Bowling Match." "Calamity Ann's Sacrifice" is another comedy that marks the bill for this evening as a real dispa-tor of the blues and one that will cause the audience to laugh in their sleep over recollections of the doings of this rare comedy team. Remember there are two performances each afternoon and three every evening.

BUTLER THEATER

At the Butler this evening a very fine program will be shown, consisting of five reels of rodeo pictures, showing three reels of the California rodeo held at Salinas and two reels of the Emeryville rodeo held at Oakland. These pictures show the largest number of competing cowboys and "cowdies" ever assembled. Thousands of spectators came from all points, for the cowboy is king and still holds sway in the old west. Champion riders from all western states risked their lives in the world's championship contest. Tomorrow, Pathe's Weekly, "A Shot in the Night," a two-reel Kalem, Friday and Saturday, "The Great Game," a two-reel Essanay; last number of "Who Will Marry Mary," or "What Happened to Mary."

CASINO THEATER

This house has a film that ranks with any of the masterpieces of the camera that will be produced this evening. The title is the "Last Stand of the Dalton Boys at Coffeyville, Kansas." Any one familiar with the history of these daring outlaws will know the thrilling nature of this portrayal as it brings to the front some of the daring avengers who helped make the history of Kansas. That the subject may be properly understood it must be known that Coffeyville was the last outpost of the bandit kings to be wiped out from the frontier which was done only by the extermination of the gang that made the name of Dalton one of terror throughout the Cimarron country.

MINER LEAVES CLAIMS TO CATHOLIC PRIEST

NEVADA CITY, March 2.—Thomas Ranison, an old miner, who died in this city, left all his property to Father O'Reilly, an old time friend, according to a will filed in the superior court.
The estate consists of a small sum in bank and some mining claims in the heart of the rich mining district at Alleghany which Ranison held at high figures and for which he had refused bonding offers for a considerable amount.

PAINTER SUSTAINS FALL AND ALMOST LOSES AN EAR

Dick Rippingham, a painter fell from a scaffolding this afternoon while working in a new saloon above the Pastime theater, and had one ear almost torn off and the right shoulder dislocated. Dr. Cowden was summoned and ordered the patient to his home at the Florence House.
